

Daniel Breton

Bretond1@wit.edu | 978.387.5856

8 Dewey St | Amesbury MA 01913

Online Portfolio: <http://www.coroflot.com/Daniel%20Breton/profile>

Education:

Wentworth Institution of Technology, Boston, MA

Exp. August 2015

Bachelor of Science in Industrial Design

Coursework:

Design Studio, Model Making, Materials and Manufacturing, Human Factors in Design

CAD, 3D Visualization/ Realization, Information Architecture,

Technical Skills:

Software: Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign, Rhino 3D, Keyshot, Graphite, Sketchbook Pro, Microsoft Office,

Hardware: Wacom Cintiq, Digital Photography,

Prototyping: Hand Crafting, Milling, Wood/ Metal lathing, Vacuum Forming, Laser Cutting, Woodworking, Plastic Thermoforming/ Vacuum Forming, Painting, Surfacing,

Studio Experience:

Bird Feeder – Created ideation sketches on paper, refined ideas through design research of individual birds, built sketch models to test concept, created Rapid Production molds and Drape Formed acrylic into final models.

Childs Bubble toy – Researched interactions between children and toys, created digital renderings in sketchbook of interactions, created functional Breadboard model to test concept, created Sketch models to test proportions, machined and painted final renshape model.

Work Experience:

Bucciarelli's Butcher Shop, Salisbury MA

September 2010 – Present

Team Leader / Customer Service Associate

Oversees a team 4-6 staff members and assists with training new employees

Provides knowledgeable information of products to customers and processes Orders.

Wild Bites, Amesbury MA

September 2009-2010

Prep Cook/ Dishwasher

Prepared kitchen for lunch and dinner

Assisted owner with cleaning and repairs

Associations:

Industrial Design Society of America – Boston Chapter

September 2012 – Present

Design Museum Boston – Student Member, Volunteer

September 2012- Present

Museum of Fine Arts – Member

August 2011 - Present

