

To demonstrate the bottle's scale and form I made an appearance model. The tactile ribs provide extra grip, even when slippery. The cap is one touch pop-open. The hook on the back allows the bottle to be clipped to a bag, but also stops the bottle from rolling. Unlike traditional water bottles, it is designed as an elliptical cylinder, making it ergonomic for any size hand.

