

SPRING AWAKENING

STAGE LEFT!

July 26 - Aug. 11

Adapted from Frank Wedekind's 1891 expressionist play about the trials and triumph of the teen years, this rock musical celebrates the unforgettable journey from youth to adulthood with a power, poignancy, and passion that you will never forget. (Contains explicit language and adult themes - may not be suitable for all audiences members).

By: Duncan Sheik and Steven Sater

Feb. 8 - Mar. 3

When revenge is one's motive, the outcome can only be tragic. In 1786, Benjamin Barker becomes the Demon Barber of London's Fleet Street in this sophisticated operetta filled with macabre wit.

By: Stephen Sondheim and Hugh Wheeler

SEASON OPENER!

Sept. 14 - Oct. 13

Just after the turn of the century, local farmers and cowboys provide the colorful background for the love story of Curly and Laurey. Enjoy traditional musical theatre while watching the creation of a brand new state!

By: Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II

Mar. 22 - April 7

Nick finally has his dream job but he will have to leave his quirky grandparents behind. Well, they have a plan of their own to keep him around... and she is adorable.

By: Joe DiPietro

Nov. 16 - Dec. 15

A touching story of a young boy named Isaac who befriends Mary and Joseph and helps the hopelessly lost Wise Men get to Bethlehem in time for the birth of Jesus. After arriving at the nativity, the little drummer boy is saddened that he has nothing to offer the child. However, with the help of his family and friends he learns that everyone has a gift.

By: Matt Harget, Musical Arrangement: Carol Miyamoto

April 26 - May 12

From the author of Crimes of The Heart: Carnelle hopes to restore her dignity by winning Brookhaven, Mississippi's famous pageant. The arrival of her recently released brother and snobbish cousin turns the family homestead upside down.

By: Beth Henley

Jan. 4 - Jan. 20, 2013

The recognition that human beings are free to choose whether they will live or die and do so calmly and objectively is explored as two climbers are stranded on an icy ledge on one of world's highest mountains.

By: Patrick Meyers

May 31 - June 29

In this fractured fairytale, a Baker and his Wife swindle, lie, and steal from Cinderella, Rapunzel, and Little Red Riding Hood in order to break the Witch's spell.

By: Stephen Sondheim and James Lapine

Thank You!

We were recently reading the original Articles of Incorporation from 1961. It was a subtle reminder that this theatre is bigger than all of us. The names of deGremli, Downing, Whitley, Anderson, Morris, and Cox are forever engraved into this theatre's history. Do they applaud our efforts, we pondered? Are we making a difference?

The truth is, we all have an impact. With that said, many of us volunteer and give to this organization; however, you make the biggest contribution of all. You uphold the biggest responsibility of all - patronage.

For over 51 years this theatre has survived and at times thrived because of you. It lives due to your name... your name on that ticket. You are a part of this theatre, a part of this community, a part of this family. When we witness you walk into the doors or gaze upon the stage, we are moved and inspired. We are grateful to have your support.

We encourage you to look into the benefits of being a season ticket holder. It's extremely affordable while rewarding for both the theatre and you.

Thank you for being here with us as we embark on our 52nd Season.

Sincerely,

George Green
Executive Artistic Director
