

Papillon II is a very ergonomically designed phone for right handed and also for left handed people too. Which helps the users to interact with the device extremely well and they could enjoy the use of this types of device too. It is a Smart communicative phone, where one can easily access their e-mails and their social networking sites while turning on the Wi-Fi, can easily call the close ones and also could take can amazing feel of the music. This device also has motion sensors gaming zone where one just have to de-attached the phone and the screen is projected in between the two parts of the device where one can just take the thrilling experienced of the games.

Papillon-II

Step Ahead

