

2015 Ignatian Lenten Series

At the Jesuit Spiritual Center we strive to serve and love the Lord better. We would like to invite you to our annual Lenten series. This Year's theme The Ignatian Way is a series of presentations of St. Ignatius' desire for men and women to be "contemplatives in action." By experiencing the principles of the Spiritual Exercises you will be invited to deepen your knowledge and experience of God in every-day life. We hope that by offering this series it will help you grow in faith, hope and love.

The dates for the Jesuit Spiritual Center's Ignatian Lenten Series are:

- Wednesday, February 25, March 4, 11, 18, 2015.
- Cost: $25 for Dinner and the Presentation; $75 whole series
- Dinner is served at 6:00 p.m., Presentation 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.
- The series will be held in the Loyola Building.
- To register, you can call (513) 248-3500, ext. 10; or you can register on-line at www.jesuitspiritualcenter.com.

Living to Love – February 25, 2015

Presenter: Cy Whitaker, SJ
We are invited to deepen our experience of God through a discussion of Ignatian Spirituality. Fr. Cy will lay the "ground of love" which is the foundation of the Exercises.

Living to Forgive – March 4, 2015

Presenter: Al Cucchetti
We will explore what it means to be a "loved sinner." We will look at the first movement of St. Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises through the eyes of God's loving mercy and forgiveness.

Following the Leader – March 11, 2015

Presenter: Julie Murray
We will explore how to seek God in all things. What it means to follow Christ. We will explore what discernment is and begin to see specific ways God is calling us to live, how to discern and live one's unique personal vocation.

Walking with Christ – March 18, 2015

Presenter: Richard Bollman, SJ
Richard will challenge us on what does discipleship mean? If we choose to follow Christ it means choosing to share in his suffering in the hope that we might share in his resurrection. How will you choose?
