

There is still a major issue of balance when shaving. The only real way to address this is to sit down.

Benefits of Seat

Balance is taken out of the equation

No strain, no falling down

Position leg without constraints of standing

Best visibility possible

Removable

It's there when you need it, easy to position to personal preference

Can also help the physically less able without connotation of a handicap product

