

coral world

my interpretation of the future underwater world experience.
It will no longer be bringing man-made buildings underwater but we are able to appreciate the natural wonder through the spaces of these coral-inspired structural forms.

