

Outer perch for feeding

When in the nest screech owls tend to lean towards the corners

3"

Preferred Hole Diameter

Screech owls are territorial animals and due to their size, are often run out of their nest by other owls or animals. They prefer to be high and look for hollow rotted out trees with around a 3 inch diameter hole.

Research