Peace and richest blessings,

Artists are of immense value to society. They are like transponders that transmit the music of the spheres into song, compositions, and performances. Artists, like mystics, carry the vision of what's possible for us as a species. True art reveals the consciousness of the artist and makes the heart of the artist visible to the world. When listening to Tim McAfee-Lewis sing, his audience viscerally feels the echo of his ancestors vibrating through the combination of the traditional church and the New Thought-Ageless Wisdom tradition, infusing his music with heaven's kiss of inspiration. When I think about artists of Tim's caliber, I call them transformers rather than performers, because Tim doesn't simply perform the song or piece of music, he is the song, he is the music. As the Spirit's song flows through him, he becomes an instrument of regeneration, healing, and transformation. So give him your attention, get ready to move, and don't be afraid to let go. You're in good hands with Tim McAfee-Lewis.

FRONT COVER

From The Heart of Tim McAfee-Lewis...

As I sit in contemplation of what to write to say Thank You to the many people who have touched my life in such a special way and who make my dreams come true day after day, I'm overcome with a deep sense of gratitude that brings me to tears. In this very moment, I know how it feels for a songwriter to write and sing a song; for the words of the song to touch the person listening in such a profound way that it expressed the listener's feelings – more than any words he or she could have ever written.

With that being said...

"I thank you for being so real and touching me, letting me see what a beautiful world this world is. And I thank you for all that's revealed while you're changing me; opening my time-blinded eyes to see my glorious possibilities. And I pray for strength to keep seeing just like this, that I can say "Yes!" and move out of the way, and give my God it's full sway. I thank you..."
