

NORTH MORPETH Landscape Masterplan & SECTION

The North Morpeth development project required a Landscape Masterplan and a section demonstrating the relationship between the main public open space and the houses surrounding it. In order to produce a section which would best express the environment that we wished to create, I decided to expand on the company's usual section format and created a perspective drawing.

