

THE CAUSE

1 Billion people globally do not have access to safe drinking water

In developing nations, carrying water from a safe reliable source is a task bestowed upon the women and children of each community...