

SCALES

Mixed media print on bond paper.
34" x 11"

Mega-events are large scale cultural events, which have a dramatic character, mass popular appeal and international significance. A feature of mega events is that they have multiple dimensions including local, national and international. This drawing merges together the difference scales tacked within Urban Playground as it pertains to this project.