FEATURED NEWS

Alexander McQueen Celebrates Grand Opening

The Dallas USA flagship Alexander McQueen boutique opened its doors on May 2nd. The iconic brand, known for its handcrafted, elaborate fashions, is housed in a 1,857-square-foot space in the heart of Highland Park Village. The storefront was completely remodeled to fit the brand's aesthetic, and clothes are displayed amid a backdrop of pale dove grey walls with display cases that are decorated and gilded.

More than 100 guests mingled and sipped on champagne at the private grand opening party while marveling at the structured pieces, elaborate detailing, and edgy baubles designed by creative director Sarah Burton. The new store boasts the complete Alexander McQueen collection, including accessories, men's and womenswear, catwalk, and ready-to-wear pieces.

Beat Summer Heat at Highland Park Village

School is officially out and temperatures are on the rise. If the thought of a Dallas summer has you antsy for ways to stay cool and chic, Highland Park Village is here to help.

Some of our summer essentials include sun conscious cover clothing available at Number One, Missoni swimwear at Scoop NYC, and Ancient Greek sandals from Five and Ten. Finally, may we suggest tricking yourself into thinking you're dipping your toes into the ocean by treating yourself to a Mediterranean Sea Salt Caramel gelato from Paciugo. Happy summer!
