Gatherings of Distinction

Gatherings are the essentials of life. Celebrating with family, meeting about that pivotal business transaction, relaxing over tea, making memories of that one special day or just enjoying a special Sunday brunch—there's nothing quite like the moments shared together.

Edward Don & Company recognizes the significance of these gatherings, and is dedicated to offering you the best products to making these occasions memorable, inspiring and successful. In the following pages, we've combined a sample of our buffet collection. Many of these items are part of our Tables of Content line, which was specifically created for Edward Don & Company. Ask your Don Sales Professional about other Don items for your buffet and beyond.

Edward Don & Company is the leader in foodservice equipment and supply distribution, and has been for the past 85 years. We know your business, and we invite you to get to know us and what we can bring to the table.
