

Using columns and midpoint of building as guideline

Placing Individual Pods around column

Position of pods are being adjusted according to the space required for level 3

To give more breathing space to the in-between space, the walkway will not be in contact with the level 3 spaces. It is being separated by either voids or individual pods.