

Hospitality and Retail Studio

Concept

Design Process

This project encouraged heavy research on the retail and market and design. The project guidelines called for a new retail design from floor plan, fixtures, lighting, and materials. The company wanted a design and concept suitable for both men and women looking for accessories.