

LED lights

The light located at the top acts as a night light or reading light with different brightness settings.

The plug located at the bottom, lets you charge your electronics. With a usb option.

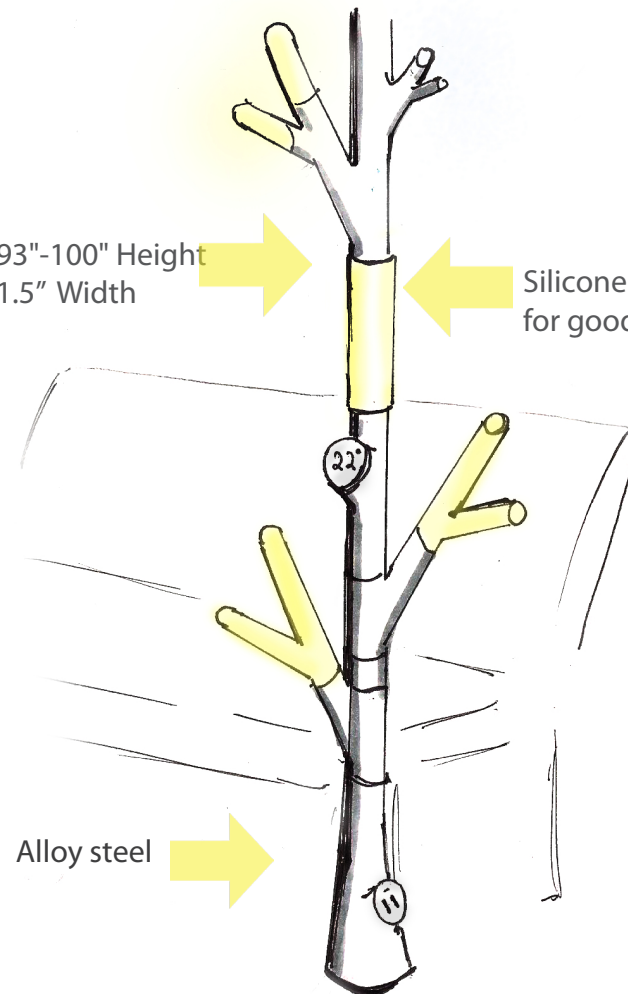

You can turn the knob for a physical control or use the touch screen by moving the black arrow, to switch screens tap on the screen.

The humidifier located at the top prevents the air in the room from being too dry, this helps ease breathing especially at night, gives you a better sleep. Reduces risk of air born infection.

The control panel located in middle has 3 different setting for the light to turn on and off, for the humidifier to control the humidity and the temperature control.

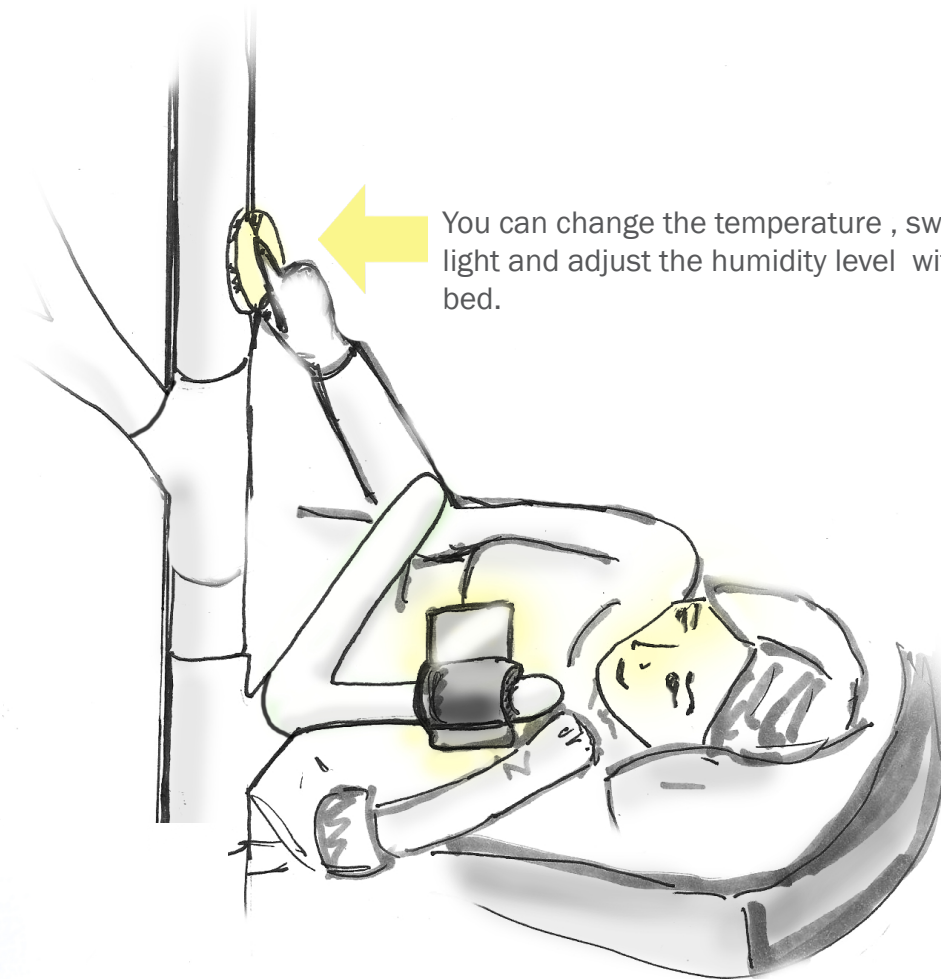

93"-100" Height
1.5" Width

Silicone coating for good grip

Alloy steel

You can change the temperature, switch on and off the light and adjust the humidity level without getting out of bed.

You can clip on any gadgets on to the support bar such as ipad, cellphone, mini table, cup holder. This helps you stay independent and more comfortable. Also useful for the non disabled person.

