

I wanted to create a floor and desk lamp that people could play with to fit their space. I CNC'd ¼" Baltic birch plywood for the stand. And for the light diffuser I laser cut paper backed wood veneer and Mylar into small repetitive parts that interlocked. The design used repetitive parts making it affordable and efficient to produce.

