THOMAS SABO jewellery is now in Ringwood.

Peter & Pam Beever are thrilled to announce the arrival of THOMAS SABO jewellery to their internationally multi branded store Ringwood Jewellers. THOMAS SABO now has quality jewellery for both men and women. Feminine, sensual and strong - tricolour is the message for 2013.

Our lives have certainly changed since first meeting in the jewellery industry as teenagers in 1974. We are now a fourth generation family business with 3 stores, including Pandora Knox & Pandora Eastland, over 30 staff who have in excess of 300 years experience. We have won many local and national awards including 2007 & 2010 "Best Small Business Jeweller in Australia". Even third prize in the international 2010 Pandora Mystery Shopping Awards.

Each year we travel to Antwerp Belgium "The Diamond Capital of the World" to select our diamonds. In Antwerp we meet with our friend Gabi Tolkowsky, the world famous diamond cutter, to select from his many diamond cuts and colours, including his new Astralis diamond range which is 30% brighter, and his Tolkowsky diamond jewellery range. We have also visited the diamond mines in Botswana and the Kimberley. We frequently go out to community groups with a powerpoint presentation detailing our vast history and the many facets of the diamond industry.

Some repairs are done whilst you wait in-store, such as watch batteries and watch band fitting. We also have two very experienced jewellers, watchmaker and valuer. They can do all jewellery repairs, remake rings to their sentimental design or remodel into a new modern design. Engagement and wedding rings are a specialty. For your convenience, our valuer also comes in-store once a month.

It's nearly 12 years since Ringwood Jewellers. If you would like to celebrate with us, visit our store and join our VIP customer loyalty club.

For great service and great brands such as Astralis, Tolkowsky, Dora, Peter W Beck, Pandora, THOMAS SABO, Ellani, Kagi, Citizen, Adina, and Ice Watches to name a few - we look forward to meeting you soon.

P.S. Check out our reduced to clear items in our End Of Financial Year Sale. Great savings.
