

RADIO SPOT
TOUGH COMMUTE
Two Steps Historical Firehouse Restaurant
Danbury, CT

Music sting, SFX restaurant noise. Cowboy has a slow-motion voice, very taciturn

COWBOY- Yup, that's what I said. This here horse a-mine, say howdy Bill, (horse whinnies) well, he won't eat nothing unless its burritos from Two Steps.

MAN AT NEXT TABLE – Well that's just amazing, that's what that is. I know a lot of people come from all round here just to get their hands on their special cheese enchiladas, you know the one's stuffed with all the chicken...

WIFE INTERRUPTS - And I love their specials, you get such a big bang for your buck... real friendly people here too...

COWBOY - (To Waitress) Bill'll have the burritos. One chicken and one beef. Lots of sauce. Bill loves sauce.

MAN AT NEXT TABLE – (continuing, bragging)
..That's right, why I come all the way from Wilton, just to get some of their famous chili! That's nigh on fifteen miles you know. Say, where did you and Old Bill come from?

COWBOY – Wyoming.

RESTAURANT TAG – Two Steps Restaurant. Fine food, good people, worth the trip from anywhere.
