

EXPERIENCE – CONFIDENCE - SUCCESS

©Susan Heller C VISUAL Two men playing chess seated in a pool of light, limbo bkgd. Intercut ECU of their eyes as they study one another coolly, then the board. Player One picks up his knight and begins to commit to a move. CU of player Two as his eyes register a slight smile in anticipation of his opponents move. Long pause. Player One changes his mind, moves another piece. CU of player Two reveals he has a strategy to deal with that possibility as well. Body language subtly reveals player Two controlling the action. Player One is sitting forward, some tension showing on his face, eye movements rapid. Player Two is sitting back in his seat, fingers steepled together calmly studying the board. Player One looks concerned, then triumphant as ... he moves his castle toward his opponents king ... Player Two raises an eyebrow in amusement, takes his knight placing it in front of his opponents king and states succinctly...	AUDIO Assessing the competition. Evaluating their strengths. And weaknesses. Combining knowledge and experience to formulate a viable strategy -- by knowing the alternatives .. in advance. Patience, born of confidence and skill, means controlling the action. Keeping cool under pressure, means making the right move at the right time. Player One - Check. Player Two - Checkmate.
