

VERISMO DISPLAY

This display is a freestanding structure that displays the Starbucks Verismo system. The coffee maker would be out on display allowing consumers to interact with the device before purchasing.

The large logo on the back of the display calls attention to the display from almost anywhere in the store. Shelves next to the brewer advertise accessories for the system, such as coffee mugs and coffee flavor syrups.

