

The current market does not offer many solutions for carriers that can be safely secured inside of a vehicle. Existing solutions are awkward to carry and/or not aesthetically pleasing. Additionally, most carriers are too short and/or too narrow causing discomfort for pets during longer trips.

Various styles of ventilation, doors, and closing mechanisms

Current methods of securing carriers into cars