

FINAL APP

My final application user interface was built to resemble the structure that Google uses in most of its apps. It is easy to use and is familiar. The app includes Google Maps plus a trip calculator for measuring your statistics.

NEW SCENARIO:

The updated scenario shows what will happen when you have the BikeJack system installed on your bike. When your bike gets moved, an accelerometer notifies your phone.