Dear Mr. Strong:

Congratulations and welcome to the Lambda Beta Honor Society, the national honor society for the profession of respiratory care. The honor of membership is conferred on you in recognition of your superior scholarly achievements as a respiratory care student. Membership assumes acceptance of the purposes of the organization, which are to:

- Recognize and support superior scholarship.
- Support the professional growth and leadership development through activities and programs at the chapter, regional and national levels.

Lambda Beta membership is a responsibility to participate in achieving the goals consistent with the professional and scholastic nature of the organization. As a member, you will promote the growth of scholarly respiratory care throughout the country and the improvement of health care. Your membership offers you the following opportunities to:

- Have your name entered into the permanent "Roll of Excellence"
- Graduate with honors
- Log on to read the newsletter at www.lambdabeta.org.
- Wear and display Lambda Beta insignia
- List honor society membership on curriculum vitae
- Be involved in ongoing chapter programs featuring awards, scholarships, research, and education
- Contribute to support respiratory care research

Official honor cords and jewelry are available to be worn and displayed by members of the society. An order form for these items is enclosed. Once again, congratulations on becoming a member of Lambda Beta.

Sincerely,

Sherry L. Barnhart, RRT, RRT-NPS, FAARC
President, Executive Board
