

SOLIDWORKS

SOLIDWORKS

The design of the drinking fountain has a twisted base so, like the walkway light, I had to use multiple plains and lofts. I achieved the twisted base by choosing different points of each sketch as the guideline while lofting from plane to plane.

