

WELCOME TO THE BACK ROOM

IT'S TIME TO PARTY!

Music excites. Music unites. Music is everywhere— from huge stadiums to the grassroots level of crowded local bars. In fact, many of today's top musicians wouldn't be successful had it not been for their "back room" shows in countless local bars across the country. These back room sessions do more than just catapult an emerging band into the spotlight; they expose "real" fans to various forms of music they might never get a chance to hear or see.
