

“Where Mexican and German combine to throw a party of flavor!”

Salsa Stein first opened in September of 2014. Owner Emma Beitz was inspired by her German heritage and her love of Mexican food to create this cultural combination restaurant. It is the love of family, traditions, and music that combine these cultures to create an authentic atmosphere that represents each equally. Many years ago, Emma had taken a trip to Mexico and had the honor of meeting Rosa Romano. Emma has stayed friends with Rosa since that trip, and has many of Rosa’s family recipes in her collection. Traditional family created recipes are used at the Salsa Stein. It is our honor and privilege to cook them for you. Join us for fun, food, family, and traditions and you’ll keep wanting to come back for more!
