

HUMAN FACTORS

By six years most children are able to reach the faucet normally. According to the CDC, the physical developmental milestone of walking up and down steps while holding on is reached at age 2.

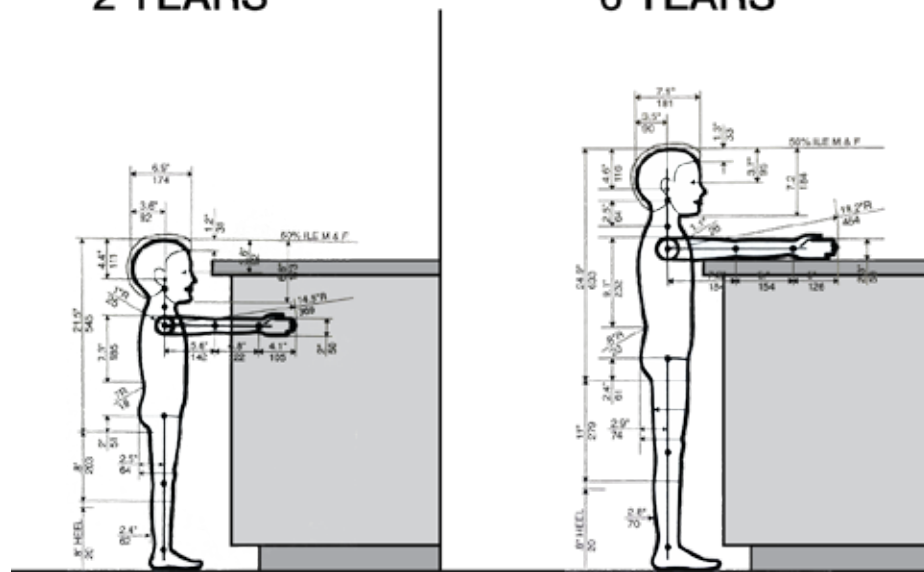

Vanity height - 30"-36" tall.

Toe kicks - 3"-5"

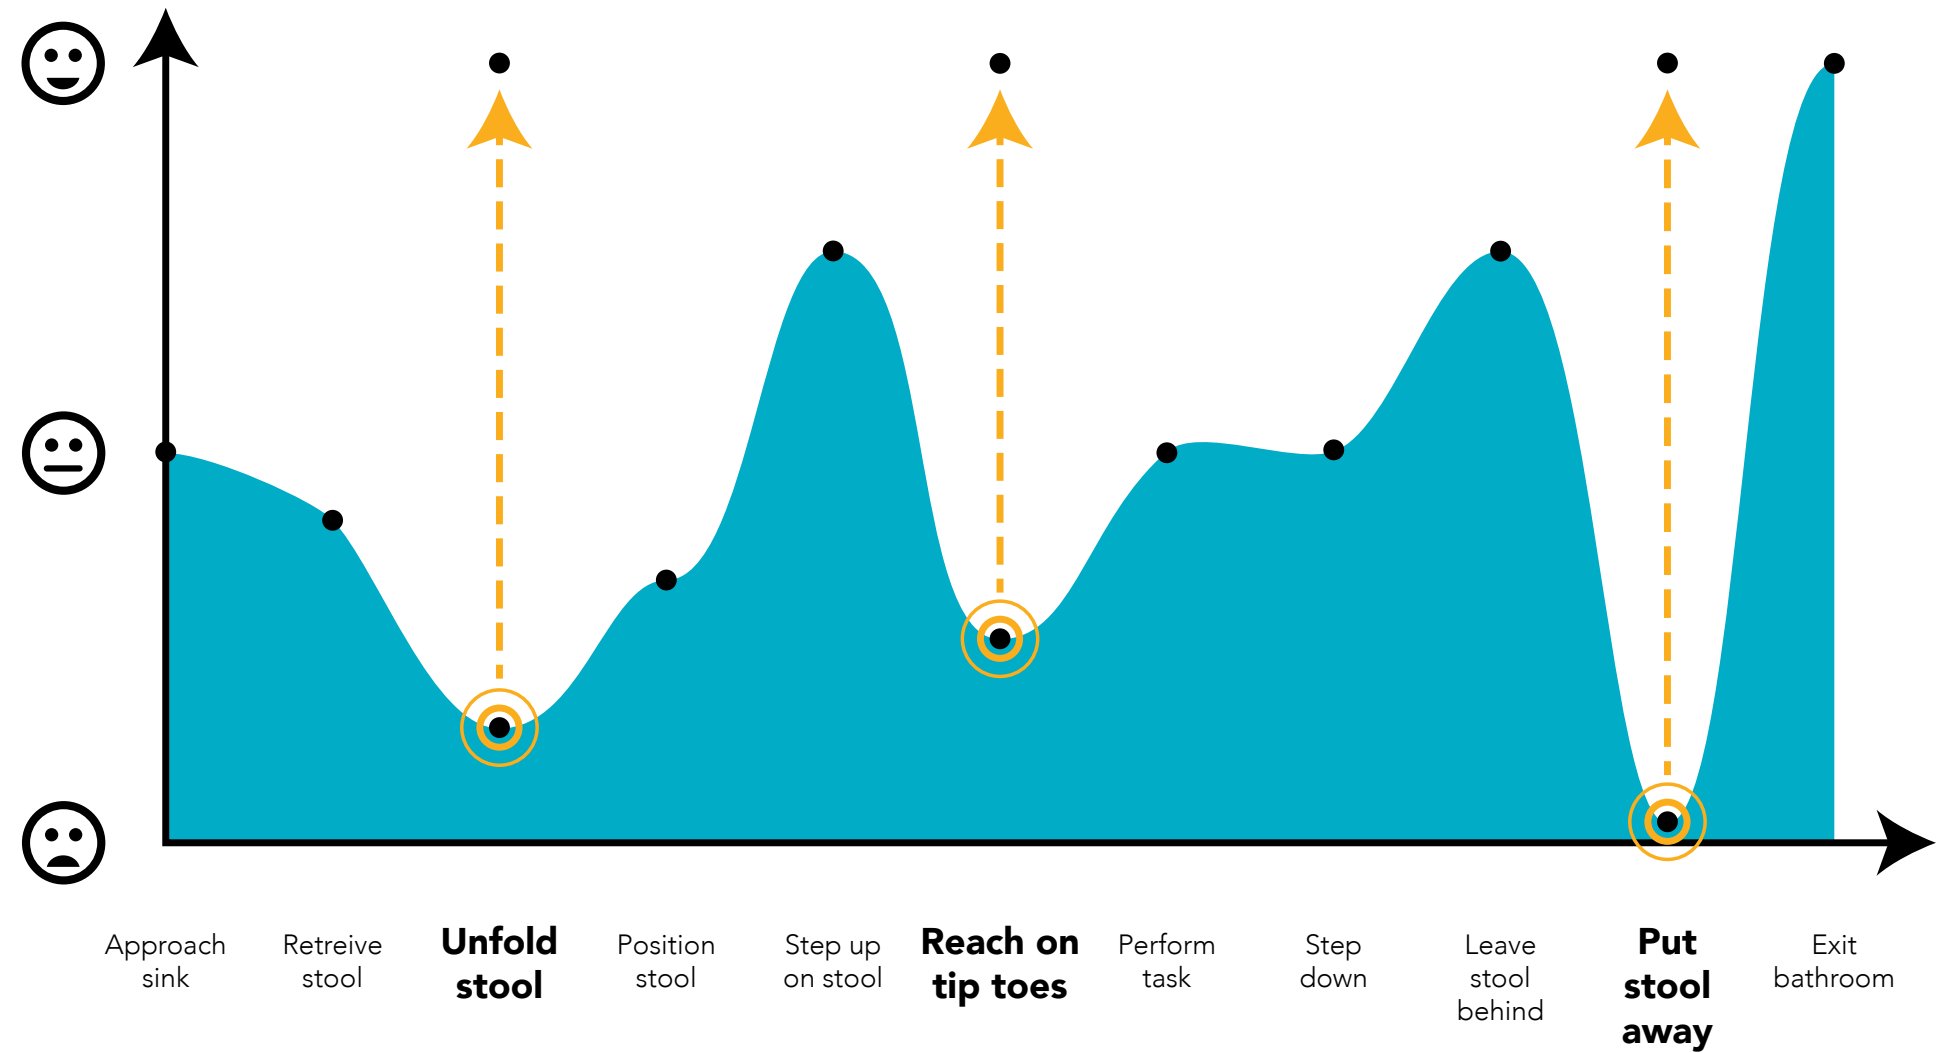

Cabinet floor - 3/4" thick

2 YEARS

6 YEARS

USER EXPERIENCE

Data was collected using observational research to understand and illustrate the experience children and parents go through using a step stool in the bathroom.