

ALLISON

25 years old
College Undergrad
Part-Time Nanny

Before Allison goes off to her first class, she showers and quickly uses her hair dryer. While stretching to reach the back of her head, her hair gets caught in the suction of the vent. The sound of her blow drying her hair wakes up her cranky roommate. When she goes to put down the dryer, her hand grazes the front grill, leaving burnt lines on her hand. She needs hair dryer that will be quiet and safe.
