

Marcel Duchamp

Moulé Vif 1967

September 12th
Angel Orenranz
Foundation Gallery
172 Norfolk Street

T 212 529 7194
Marcel-Duchamp.com
Foundation@Orenranz.org

The sculpture piece "Moulé Vif" by Marcel Duchamp was a practice of anti-art. Duchamp once questioned Truman Capote, "Why isn't my chess playing an art activity? 'A chess game is very plastic. You construct it. It's mechanical sculpture and with chess one creates beautiful problems and that beauty is made with the head and hands.'"

