| 5   | The 2012 Southland Conference Championship was the fifth conference championship in UT Arlington history.                                                                                                                            |
| 4   | UT Arlington defeated four top-25 ranked opponents in 2012 including No. 2 Texas A&M, No. 12 Texas, No. 16 Oklahoma and No. 21 Texas State                                                                                           |
| 4-2 | The 2012 Mavericks were 4-2 against Big 12 opponents with two losses coming to Baylor on the road, including one in the NCAA tournament. UTA was also 1-1 against TCU, who joined the Big 12 this year.                              |
| 4   | Four players from the 2012 roster have moved onto the Major Leagues including Preston Beck who was drafted in the fifth round of the MLB draft by the Texas Rangers. Beck is joined by Adam Boydston, Collin Reynolds and Lance Day. |
| 3   | Three players earned All-SLC honors from 2012. Preston Beck was named to the first-team All-SLC while Ryan Walker and Lance Day were selected to the second-team.                                                                    |

UT Arlington returned to the NCAA post-season for the first time since 2006 in a season culminated with a Southland Conference championship in the Mavericks final season in the conference. The 2012 campaign was a season filled with top-25 opponents in which UTA took down one-by-one. The Mavs defeated four ranked opponents during the course of the season and took down four consecutive Big 12 teams before finishing 4-2 against the conference overall.

In SLC play, UTA took care of business when it mattered most. After being swept by McNeese State in the final road series, UTA came back home and swept Texas A&M Corpus Christi to earn the No. 4 seed in the SLC tournament.

The Mavericks got revenge against McNeese State to open up the tournament with a 6-2 win and then knocked off Texas A&M CC 10-5. In the semi-final, the Mavericks defeated Sam Houston State 7-6 to earn a trip to the SLC championship game.

UTA jumped out to a 5 run lead before Southeastern Louisiana could answer. Preston Beck then put the dagger into the Lions with a grand-slam over the right field wall to finish off a 13-3 win and clinch the fifth trip to the NCAA tournament.

The Mavericks entered the NCAA tournament as the No. 3 seed in the Baylor Regional to begin the tournament. UTA was paired with familiar foe Dallas Baptist to open the tournament. DBU snapped the Mavs seven game winning streak by shutting out UTA for the first time in two months 10-0. The run ended for the Mavs in the second round at the hands of Baylor. The Bears came from behind to knock of the Mavericks 11-6 to end the season for UTA.

UT ARLINGTON
Director of Athletics
Jim Baker

Jim Baker joined The University of Texas at Arlington as director of intercollegiate athletics Feb. 1, 2012 - just as men's and women's basketball debut in the new $78 million, 7,000-seat College Park Center.

Baker previously served as associate athletic director for events, operations and sports programs at UT Austin, where he helped direct significant growth in one of the nation's most recognized athletics programs.

Baker earned his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Franklin University in Columbus, Ohio, and held positions with Gladieux Food Service at The Ohio State University and the University of Florida Athletic Association before joining UT Austin in 1991.

In his 20 years with the Texas Longhorn athletics program, Baker had wide-ranging responsibilities, from directing merchandising and concessions, to overseeing more than a dozen athletic facilities construction projects. Most recently, Baker had chief responsibility for the UT Austin golf and baseball programs and directed all game-day activities for football.

As UT Arlington athletics director, Baker manages all aspects of the University's 14 Division I intercollegiate sports programs. In addition to basketball, UT Arlington fields teams in women's volleyball, baseball, softball, men's golf, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's tennis and in men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field events.

Baker and his wife, Nancy, have two grown sons.

Media Reference

The UT Arlington Athletic Department respectfully asks your cooperation in referring to the University's sports programs as UT Arlington. UT-Arlington, Texas-Arlington and Texas Arlington are among the versions that are incorrect in referring to our athletic programs. Feel free to use the abbreviation UTA for second references. Also, although we are officially the Mavericks, using Mavs on second reference is also acceptable. We thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

THE WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

After completing its 50th year of intercollegiate competition, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best programs. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the years. Since 2000, a total of 43 football teams have been invited to bowl games, including more than half of its teams in 2008 with a record-tying five. The conference has sent teams to BCS bowl games three times since 2006. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the past 29 seasons. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003. In women's basketball, Louisiana Tech basketball has played in all but three NCAA postseason tournaments during its history.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. The WAC also officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships including volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving, basketball, softball and baseball.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. In 2005, Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew. Boise State withdrew prior to the 2011-12 season. The current membership began on July 1, 2012 when the WAC added Denver, Seattle, UT-Arlington, UTSA and Texas State to replace withdrawing members, Fresno State, Hawai'i and Nevada. New members, CSU Bakersfield, Grand Canyon and Utah Valley, will join the conference on July 1, 2013.

The WAC has had just six commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94), Karl Benson (1994-2012) and current interim commissioner Jeff Hurd (2012-present).

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports - eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference's inception with the exception of a two-year stay in Phoenix from 1964-66.

UT Arlington at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington

TCU vs. UT Arlington
March 19, 2013 - 6:30 p.m.

VS.

UT Arlington and TCU will meet at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington for the first of three meetings this season. The team's split the 2012 home-and-home series last season and meet for the 147th time. TCU leads the overall series 91-50-1 all-time. However, UTA has won two of the last three meetings between the two teams. Following the neutral site game, the teams will play a home-and-home series taking place March 16 at Clay Gould Ballpark and May 14 in Fort Worth.

About Rangers Ballpark in Arlington

On April 1, 1994, a new era for the Texas Rangers began with the opening of Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. The beautiful baseball-only facility serves as the centerpiece of a 270-acre complex which solidifies Arlington, Texas as an entertainment giant in the Southwest.

Rangers Ballpark in Arlington, completed in just 23 months, is a state-of-the-art building with the utmost in customer convenience. Yet, the 49,170-seat open-air ballpark was designed and built with tradition and intimacy in mind, containing features such as a granite and brick facade, exposed structural steel, an asymmetrical playing field, and a home run porch in right field. Texas architecture is featured throughout, from the outer facade to the Lone Stars in the concourses and on the seat aisles.

This unique complex also includes a four-story office building within the ballpark, a youth baseball park, a 12-acre lake, and parks and recreation space on the perimeter. Total cost of the project was approximately $191 million.

CLAY GOULD BALLPARK

THE HOME OF UT ARLINGTON BASEBALL

For years, UT Arlington has enjoyed playing on one of the most well-manicured baseball surfaces in the country. The Mavericks enter their 38th season at the same ballpark that has seen a few overhauls during its nearly four decades of housing the team.

Prior to the start of the 2003 season, renovations to the stadium were completed featuring a brand new grand entranceway and added seating to boost the capacity to 1,600. The facility received a new state-of-the-art lighting system, which allows the Mavericks the ability to play night baseball.

The facility was re-named Clay Gould Ballpark on April 26, 2003, after the former UT Arlington standout player and coach. The name change was at the suggestion of Dr. Allan Saxe, an associate professor of political science at UT Arlington, whom the ballpark was previously named after.

In front of a crowd of nearly 1,000 people, the name change officially took place and Gould's widow, Julie, and daughter, Logan, unveiled the memorial of Clay Gould on the outside wall of the main entranceway.

In 2009 a Daktronics ProStar® LED Display video board was installed and the center section of the grandstands also received an upgrade with approximately 345 new seats added.

Further additions to the stadium took place in 1999, when a three-foot high brick wall - that spans from dugout to dugout - was added, along with a new net backstop. Projects for the 2010 season included adding a "brag board" next to the scoreboard/video board.

The stadium was named for Saxe, after his overwhelming generosity made it possible for UT Arlington to continue its development of one of the finest facilities in the NCAA.

The stadium was originally opened in 1974 as the Mavericks hosted TCU in the UT Arlington debut of head coach Butch McBroom.

In 36 seasons, the Mavericks have established Clay Gould Ballpark as one of the toughest places for a visiting team in the country. Since 1974, the Mavericks have averaged 20 wins per season at home. In all, UT Arlington has won 703 games, while losing just 395 for a .640 home field winning percentage.

In 1986, the field was completely renovated. The entire field was sprigged with a fine natural turf (Hybrid Bermuda Tiff 419). A hydraulic powered irrigation system was installed while the surface was leveled and a new infield dirt mixture was applied along with the addition of a warning track surrounding the field.

UT Arlington's coaching staff serves as the head groundskeepers. With the help of the Maverick baseball players, Clay Gould Ballpark is now considered one of the finest playing surfaces in the Southwest. Besides UT Arlington baseball, the diamond has played host to the Texas State Junior College Tournament, the state American Amateur Baseball Congress Connie Mack and American Legion Tournaments and numerous high school playoff games. It also served as the venue for Major League tryout camps.

Nolan Ryan, Alex Rodriguez, Roger Clemens and Ozzie Smith have made appearances at the Ballpark for individual workouts, commercials, camps and clinics.

Clay Gould Ballpark also includes three remodeled astro-turfed batting cages and a 10-foot padded wall.

The field has dimensions of 330 feet down the lines, 380 feet into the power alleys and 400 feet to straight away center field.

Darin Thomas

Head Coach - Sixth Year

UT Arlington head coach Darin Thomas took over the baseball program in 2008 after serving seven years as an assistant coach. The program has continued to grow under Thomas' watch, culminating in a trip to the 2012 NCAA Regionals as the Southland Conference champions.

The Mavericks are 148-142 during Thomas' tenure, including a 36-25 campaign in 2012. UT Arlington has traditionally played a daunting schedule littered with regional powers such as Texas, Texas A&M, Baylor, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, in addition to ranked teams from around the country. The Mavericks own wins over 11 ranked teams under Thomas.

Thomas' guidance plus UT Arlington's challenging has helped prepare players for the next level. Since Thomas' arrival at UT Arlington, over 40 players have been either drafted or signed with Major League teams.

He has coached 34 All-Conference performers (15 first-team selections), 17 SLC All-Tournament team selections, two SLC Tournament Most Valuable Players, two SLC Players of the Year, three SLC Hitters of the Year, two SLC Newcomers of the Year, four SLC Batting Champions, one SLC Freshman of the Year and one SLC ERA Champion.

In addition, out of the nine UTA players who have played in the Major Leagues, Thomas has coached six, including Daniel Ortmeier (2000-02), Ryan Roberts (2002-03), Mark Lowe (2002, 2004), Hunter Pence (2003-04), Adam Moore (2006) and Dillon Gee (2005-07).

Thomas' squads have also had unparalleled success in the classroom. Baseball student-athletes have finished with a cumulative GPA of 3.04 in 10 semesters since Thomas became head coach during the 2007-2008 academic year. Thomas came to UT Arlington following nine years as an assistant coach at Seward County Community College, where he assisted National Junior College Athletic Association Hall of Fame Coach Galen McSpadden.

While at SCCC, Thomas helped lead the Saints to a 346-144 (.706) record while being ranked in the Top 20 nationally during seven seasons. Seward County captured four Jayhawk West Conference crowns, four runner-up finishes and one Sub-Region VI Tournament title.

Before coming to Arlington, Thomas spent his previous four summers as the head coach with the semi-pro Liberal Bee Jays of the Jayhawk League, where he worked with late UT Arlington coach Clay Gould for three summers.

Thomas began his collegiate playing career at Seward County where he earned All-Conference and All-Region VI honors as a right-handed pitcher in 1986. He helped lead his team to a Jayhawk West Conference title and to the program's first-ever Sub-Region VI Tournament championship by going 11-1 on the mound.

Thomas earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and physical education from Oklahoma Christian University in 1989 and a master's degree in sports administration from Fort Hays State University in 1996. He began his coaching career in 1990 at Oklahoma Christian High School before moving to Seward County CC in 1991.

Thomas and his wife, Jean, have three children, Megan, Ryan and Reed.

Asst. Coach Jay Sirianni

Ninth Season

UT Arlington pitching coach Jay Sirianni joined the program in 2005. Under his watch, more than 20 pitchers have signed contracts with MLB organizations.

Under Sirianni's watch, the UT Arlington pitching staff has consistently been one of the best in its conference. Sirianni was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 2007, coinciding with UT Arlington naming Darin Thomas head coach.

Before his arrival at UT Arlington, Sirianni spent three seasons as the pitching coach at Barton County Community College in Great Bend, Kan. While at Barton County, Sirianni helped lead the Cougars to a 113-56 record with a pitching staff ERA of 4.69.

He began his collegiate playing career at Texas A&M before transferring to Nebraska to play for head coach Dave Van Horn. In four years in Lincoln, Sirianni compiled a 15-9 record and was the Friday night starter in 1999.

In the summer of 1998, Sirianni was a member of the Liberal Bee Jays that advanced to the NBC World Series in Wichita, Kan. That team was coached by Darin Thomas and the late Clay Gould.

Following his career at Nebraska, Sirianni was signed as a free agent by the Cleveland Indians. Sirianni began his professional career with the Burlington Indians (Rookie League) and also spent time with the Mahoning Valley Scrappers (New York-Penn League) and Kingston Indians (Carolina League).

After finishing his pro career in January 2001, Sirianni returned to Nebraska for his final semester and earned a bachelor's degree in history in May 2001.

Sirianni is a native of Indianola, Iowa, and played his prep career at Indianola High School. He earned 10 varsity letters with four coming in baseball and three each in track and field and football. He was a two-time All-State selection and a three-time All-Conference pick.

Sirianni's father, John, is the Director of Athletics at Division III Simpson College in Indianola after spending 20 years as the school's head baseball coach. His brother, Mike, is a high school baseball coach in Jonesboro, Ark.

Sirianni married the former Erin McKernan on Sept. 2, 2006. The couple celebrated the birth of their first child, Mia, in September of 2010.

Volunteer Asst. Coach Troy Dean Conkle

Third Season

Troy Conkle begins his third stint with UT Arlington, this time as the team's volunteer assistant coach. Previously, Conkle coached under Mavericks legend Clay Gould for eight seasons off and on from 1995-2003.

Conkle starts his third decade with UTA and was a member of the Mavericks staff that coached the team to the Southland Conference championship in 2001. That team also won the only NCAA Regional Tournament game in program history when the Mavs topped Houston in the Rice Regional.

Even before coaching UT Arlington, the Southland Conference was hardly new terrain for Conkle, a First-Team All-SLC performer in 1992 and '93 as Northwestern State's shortstop. Conkle's teammates thought enough of him to make him a two-year captain. He also anchored a Northwestern State defense that led the league in defense in 1992.

Conkle's pedigree began at Northwestern State, where he played for former Alabama head coach Jim Wells as well as current Alabama coach Mitch Gaspard and current Ole Miss coach Mike Bianco. Conkle graduated from NSU in 1994 with a degree in broadcast journalism.

Before transferring to Northwestern State, Conkle was a junior college All-American freshman at Paris Junior College.

After college, Conkle played independent ball in the Texas-Louisiana League from 1994-97. His team, Abilene, won the Texas-Louisiana League championship in 1996. He was also named an all-star in 1995. In 1997, his final year as a player, Conkle pitched while also serving as the pitching coach. He carried that into a one-year stint as the pitching coach for Abilene Christian University.

Conkle later returned to school, earning a law degree from Texas Wesleyan School of Law.

Conkle is married to the former Jennifer Berry. The couple has two kids, Caroline and William.

Asst. Coach K.J. Hendricks

Sixth Season

K.J. Hendricks enters his sixth season with the Mavericks in 2011, his second as an assistant coach. Hendricks spent the two previous seasons on the UT Arlington staff as a volunteer assistant (2009) and team chaplain (2008). Hendricks serves as the team's hitting and defensive coach.

In his first year as the UTA hitting coach, Hendricks helped Michael Choice win the Southland Conference batting title with a .383 average. Choice wasn't alone in finding prosperity in the Mavericks' batting order last season.

Hendricks mentored six full-time starters to batting averages of .300 or better and eight regular starters to on-base percentages of .340 or better. By the year's end, Hendricks helped steer the UTA offense to top-10 finishes in program history in home runs, RBI, runs scored, hits and doubles.

Hendricks returned to UT Arlington in the fall of 2007 after completing his professional playing career that spanned six seasons with the Colorado Rockies, Baltimore Orioles and Fort Worth Cats. Hendricks earned his bachelor's degree at UT Arlington in 2008.

Hendricks played his freshman season at Temple College before joining the Mavericks for a standout two-year career from 2001-2002. Hendricks was then selected by the Colorado Rockies in the 2002 MLB Draft in the 26th round with the 771st overall selection.

In 2005, Hendricks was named the "Fastest Base Runner" in the Colorado Rockies farm system by Baseball America. His last season with the Rockies was another successful campaign batting .286 (136-for-475) with 100 runs, 20 doubles, five triples, three home runs, 54 RBI and 34 stolen bases with class-A Visalia Oaks in the California League. He completed his professional career with 134 stolen bases and a career batting average of .284.

In his first year playing at UT Arlington, Hendricks earned second team All-Southland Conference honors as well as earning the nickname "The Pest" by late UT Arlington head coach Clay Gould because of Hendricks' aggressive playing style.

Hendricks ranks fourth on the all-time UTA career stolen bases list with 69, which is the most in UTA history for a two-year letterwinner.

Dir. of Operations Tim Steggall

First Season

Tim Steggall is in his third season with UTA Baseball, and his first as Director of Baseball Operations. In this role, he is responsible for administrative duties, scouting reports and charts, organizing travel accommodations and logistics, organizing baseball camps, and helping with alumni events and baseball fundraisers.

After playing for the Mavericks in 2009, Steggall returned for the 2012 season as the Student Volunteer Coach while he finished his degree. He worked mostly with the pitchers and served as the bullpen coach. Before returning to UTA as a coach, Steggall had a varied playing career. Steggall's collegiate playing career consisted of three different colleges and spanned almost the entire West Coast. After growing up in California, he played his freshman year at NCAA Division III University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, WA, under Head Coach Brian Billings where he was named 1st Team All-Region.

Steggall transferred to Central Arizona College for his sophomore year, where he played under Head Coach Jon Wentz. He helped lead the team to a Junior College World Series berth in Grand Junction, CO. He was named 1st Team All-Region, 1st Team All-Conference, as well as Central Arizona Male Student Athlete of the Year. Steggall was also named to the Central Arizona College Academic Honor Roll during both semesters.

After the successful year at Central Arizona, Steggall transferred to UT Arlington for the 2009 season, a season in which he started every game at shortstop. In the summer after his junior year, while playing for Barry Aiden and the Seattle Studs, Steggall signed a free agent contract with the Texas Rangers as a pitcher. He pitched in the Rangers organization from 2009-2011.

Steggall graduated summa cum laude in 2012 with a B.A. in English, and is currently working toward his Master's in Business Administration and a Master's Degree in Economics.

UT ARLINGTON RETIRED NUMBERS

Butch McBroom

30

February 5, 2000

The first number retired by the UT Arlington baseball program was the No. 30 belonging to long-time head coach Marvin "Butch" McBroom. McBroom was associated with The University of Texas at Arlington's baseball team longer than anyone in the history of the program. The team's head coach from 1974-1999, McBroom won two Southland Conference championships and took his team to the NCAA Regional in 1990 and 1992. McBroom roamed the Mavericks dugout for 26 of his 33 year coaching career, winning 756 games. Among the honors McBroom received during his distinguished career were NCAA South Central Region Coach of the Year in 1990 and four SLC Coach of the Year awards.

He posted 14 consecutive 30-plus win seasons (1980-1993) and helped produce 65 players who moved on to the professional ranks, 48 who became coaches and 46 who earned All-SLC honors in a UT Arlington uniform. Over the course of his collegiate coaching career, which also included two years at Union (Tenn.) University, McBroom won 804 games. McBroom also spent five years coaching in the high school ranks. The former Baylor graduate standout catcher was inducted into the UT Arlington Athletic Hall of Honor on Sept. 25, 2004.

Clay Gould

February, 17, 2002

Clay Gould's jersey No. 8 joined the number of his former coach, Butch McBroom, on the outfield wall at Allan Saxe Stadium (now Clay Gould Ballpark) on Feb. 17, 2002. A former Mavericks player and head coach, Gould won championships in both capacities. As a player, Gould was the Southland Conference Player of the Year in 1993 and was nominated for USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award, presented yearly to the nation's most outstanding player. He led the Mavericks to NCAA Regional appearances as a player in 1990 and 1992.

Gould was an assistant coach at UT Arlington from 1997-1999, before being named the school's fourth head coach in 2000. His 2001 Mavericks won the Southland Conference Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Regional, making Gould the only member of all three of UT Arlington's regional teams. He was named Co-Coach of the Year in the South Central Region by the American Baseball Coaches Association in 2001.

Gould passed away on June 23, 2001, after a courageous battle with cancer, but his memory lives on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Trey Hillman

May 8, 2010

Trey Hillman's jersey No. 1 became the third in UT Arlington history to get retired at Clay Gould Ballpark on May 8, 2010. Hillman is the only three-time All-Southland Conference baseball selection in UTA history. His .442 batting average in 1985 led the SLC and remains a single-season record at UTA. Hillman was named the 1985 SLC Player of the Year before signing a free agent contract with the Cleveland Indians in 1986.

After a brief playing career, Hillman blazed his new path as a manager in 1990 at 27 years old, winning the Carolina League championship in his first season. He was named the 1996 Florida State League Manager of the Year and the 2000 International League Manager of the Year. In 2006, Hillman won the Japan Series title and Konami Cup as the manager of the Nippon Ham Fighters. Hillman realized the dream of becoming a Major League Baseball manager in 2008 when he took the reins of the Kansas City Royals. He is now the bench coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

UT ARLINGTON SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Cary Courtwright Scholarship

The Cary Courtwright scholarship was introduced in the 2000-01 academic year. Established in honor of the late Cary Courtwright, who had so generously given to the UT Arlington baseball program for many years, by Mr. Courtwright's family, the scholarship funds one scholarship for the Mavericks baseball squad each year.

UT Arlington established the Clay Gould Memorial Scholarship in memory of the former Mavericks head coach and All-Southland Conference player who passed away after a courageous battle with cancer on June 23, 2001. As a player, Gould was the SLC Player of the Year in 1993 and was nominated for USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award, presented yearly to the nation's most outstanding player. He led the Mavericks to NCAA Regional appearances as a player in 1990 and 1992. Gould was an assistant coach at UT Arlington from 1997-1999 before being named the school's fourth head coach in 2000. His 2001 Mavericks won the SLC and advanced to the NCAA Regional, making Gould the only member of all three of UT Arlington's regional teams. He was named Co-Coach of the Year in the South Central Region by the American Baseball Coaches Association in 2001. His No. 8 was retired by UT Arlington on Feb. 17, 2002.

ball program has been enhanced by the generosity and support of Joe and Dorothy Macko. In memory of their son Steve, who was an All-American short-stop at Baylor University, and later played with the Chicago Cubs, the Macko family annually hosts events that attract hundreds of athletes. The proceeds from these events have created scholarships for baseball players at UT Arlington, Baylor, Texas

Wesleyan, McLennan Junior College and Dallas Bishop Lynch High School. The Macko family has been great supporters of high school and college baseball for many years. Joe Macko is a veteran of 54 years in professional baseball. He hit 306 home runs during a 15-year minor league career and spent 30 years as equipment and clubhouse manager for the Texas Rangers.

James V. Leggett Jr. Scholarship

The James V. Leggett Jr. Academic/Athletic Endowed Baseball Scholarship was established in the 2004-05 academic year in honor of James V. Leggett Jr., a local business entrepreneur who had a long history of supporting various charities and educational projects. The scholarship was formed by family and friends of Leggett. The student-athlete must also major in business or a related field.
