

Justine Trudeau-Tyler

“America Deserves Better.”

Justine’s Platform

- Running as the new Democratic candidate for the 2016 United States election
- Socially liberal, fiscally conservative platform
- Focus on improving US healthcare by building on The Affordable Care Act
- Addressing international issues around refugees, terrorism, government relations and global security
- Continuing to improve gender diversity and reproductive health, including the rights of trans people and access to birth control

About Justine Trudeau-Tyler

- Born in 1978 in New York, NY
- Married to wife Jackie Trudeau-Tyler-Moore, a paediatric brain surgeon at Harlem Hospital Centre in New York, NY
- Is the daughter of Margaret Trudeau and Steven Tyler; half-sister to Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau

Justine’s Education and Career

- Graduated with a law degree from Yale Law School
- Worked as a civil rights attorney before serving on the New York State Senate for two terms

Public Support of Justine’s Candidacy

- The First Lady of the United States of America Michelle Obama
- American celebrity entertainer and humanitarian Ellen Degeneres

Media Contact Info

Jillian Dasti

Media Relations Representative

Email: jdasti@jtt.com

Phone: (212) 893 – 5591