OLYMPIC BMX

Bikes – both mountain and road – are Buchanan's favorite. This year, hoping to win the World Championships, she's training for both. 'I started riding when I was 10, and I never looked back. I've been riding across the country and I'm at a high level in my sport. I want to achieve my goals and become a professional athlete.'

WELLER

Coming out of suitcases for the road. By far my most memorable race is Whistler in Canada. It was a great experience, mountain bike park with Bulldogs in Europe. I have two years old and a half months old. They are the clowns who love to be around people.'

COMPANIONS

DYNAMIC

'Barry (Nobles) is a professional BMX racer from America. He's won the World Cup race in the past few years ago. Distance is a challenge, but I would use my relationship but also my love for fun, BMX, mountain biking, and Olympic goals.'
