

a cloud of freshness

In the Eastern culture, cloud represents good luck and symbolizes never-ending fortune. For SERENE HOUSE, a single white cloud drifts with the breeze in the blue sky means freshness and the purity of nature. We feel the clouds tell a great deal about the essence of air care and a simple goal to create a pleasant environment.

In a fast paced urban environment, stress and pollution surround with us and indoor air quality has become a major concern in our environments. SERENE HOUSE sees an opportunity in developing personal air care products and fragrances to fulfill an increasing demand for a cleaner indoor environment and a relaxed harmonious lifestyle.

In collaboration with Swiss designer, Carsten Jörgensen, these highly innovation and functional new designs of air care products and fragrances are created and become a symbiosis between the nose and eye and of an ultimate experience of sense and sensibility. We can feel the purity and the elegant design help improve your sense of wellbeing through scent, sound and visual aesthetics.

the secret of scents

Have you ever know...

The human nose and the olfactory system provide us more than our imagination of senses. The sense of smell is linked directly to our sense of taste, emotion and memory. Just as a pleasant smell can give us a strong emotional reaction, such as relaxation, comfort, even attraction; whereas an unpleasant scent instantly decreases the attractiveness of something or someone. Throughout history, people try to find the ways to make their surroundings more serene and pleasant, and one way we do is by fragrances.

Air care products can enhance your moods, reduce your stress levels and perhaps, even increase your productivities. You can now banish the bad smell with a push of a button... air care has never been simpler and aesthetic! You will discover how SERENE HOUSE air care products & fragrances harmoniously balance your wellbeing and create your serenity.

scent flute notes

available

The design of the Scent Flute is based on the fact that humans acclimate to smells in their environment after thirty minutes. Scent Flute alternates between distinct Scent Tubes to create a piece of fragrant music. Each tube releases its fragrance for 45 minutes, then pauses 15 minutes before the next one begins, giving you the chance to refresh your sensitivity to the next scent.

LED lights shine with a soothing glow in the dark and drop into Heatable Fragrance Oils, Scent Flute II seems to play a kind of fragrant music. And the switch panel and tube switch device will help you to operate the diffuser more easily and safely.
