

color your mood

a cloud of freshness

In Eastern cultures, clouds represent good luck and endless good fortune. Clouds symbolize the essence of air care and a pleasant environment. For SERENE HOUSE, a single white cloud drifts peacefully in a blue sky to indicate freshness and the purity of nature.

Fast-paced urban environments surround us with pollution and constantly create stress. Even indoor air can seem unhealthy. SERENE HOUSE seeks to develop personal air care products and fragrances to fulfill an increasing demand for a more pure personal environment and a more relaxed, harmonious lifestyle.

Famed Swiss designer Carsten Jörgensen has collaborated with SERENE HOUSE to create beautiful yet functional new air care products that will delight both the nose and the eye. The purity and elegance of design are a perfect match for the sounds and fragrances that they impart.

SERENE HOUSE deeply values the trust of our customers, and strives to meet international standards for environmental sustainability. You can enjoy the serenity provided by the SERENE HOUSE Personal Air Care Collection with complete peace of mind.

Both colors and scents influence our mood and sense of well-being. Selecting the right combination of color and scent can enhance a good mood or help counteract a bad one. Breathing in a wonderful smell is quick and easy way to enjoy these benefits. SERENE HOUSE makes it possible.

Each SERENE HOUSE scent evokes a unique feeling to color your mood. Want to know how to choose the right one for you?
