

FRESH TAKE ON A Classic TRADITION!

THE LOG CABIN

Once a speakeasy during the prohibition era, The Log Cabin was originally constructed in 1929, beginning what would become a nearly nine-decade tradition. Now under new management, this local legend returns as one of Lancaster County's premier dining experiences, upholding the impeccable standards it's long been known for.

Tucked away in the Lehigh Forest, the original cabin has been greatly expanded over the years, affording diners unique ambiance in all of its dining rooms, from the crackling fireplace, handsome full bar and rich woodwork to walls adorned with antique art. Patrons can also enjoy al fresco dining on The Log Cabin's picturesque fenced patio, surrounded by mature trees and the subtle sounds of Lancaster County's iconic countryside.

The restaurant is staffed with not only an award-winning general manager, but an acclaimed chef who has cooked with the likes of Julia Child and apprenticed under certified master chef Hartmut

Handke and former white house chef Walter Sheib. This winning foundation, paired with a focus on fresh, local ingredients, continues to impress those who come from near and far to experience what this area staple has to offer. Whether you're savoring Sunday Brunch, sampling a small plate, enjoying their raw bar selections or reveling in a savory entree, The Log Cabin's fresh takes on classic traditions will undoubtedly leave a lasting impression.
