

Variations

When appropriate, different color variations should be used to keep our logo looking correct.

These color variations of the original provide the flexibility to be used on colored, white, or black backgrounds. A guide has been provided to help determine which variation is most appropriate for when the occasion arises.

