The days before the game are full of daily practice but Sandrin goes a step further by reviewing tapes of games that the opposing team had played. "I watch a lot of film outside of practice to get a solid understanding of our opponent," Sandrin said. Photo by A. Schlaver. 6 | The crowd goes wild as the varsity CAPTAIN PETER MITCHELL, 12, and his teammates help to prevent Grandview from scoring the touchdown that would win them the homecoming game at LPS stadium. "I play my hardest because I know [my teammates] are going to give me all they have and I don't want to let them down," Mitchell said. 5 | Evading the opposing team, BENJAMIN SANDRIN, 12, applies his training and knowledge to assist his team towards victory.
