

BUT RIGHT NOW, WE ARE AT PEACE.

A quiet flame
illuminates the stage
on the opening
night of "Anything Goes" right before
the curtain rises
and for a moment
the Earth is still.

There's something about these natural
moments—

IT'S JUST WHO WE ARE,
guided by our spirits
and the fire of this life. The epitome
of our journey is passion. We are confusing, intelligent
and blissful.

it's in our NATURE

As the band marches through The Streets of Southglenn for Western Welcome Week, Manuel Galvan Estrada, 12, salutes the crowd. This year, Galvan Estrada served the band as a drum major. The event occurred the weekend of Homecoming and the band led the parade. Photo by A.
Swomley.

by Faith Fyles & Jordan Petteys