Post Positions

Post internship, co-op, and career opportunities on E&T Careers, the Purdue School of Engineering and Technology's career services system. Once posted in the system, the positions are also emailed to qualified students and featured in our Twitter feed to maximize your visibility.

Recruit Students for Internships & Co-ops

Our internship and co-op program affords you the opportunity to see student talent at work, gain a fresh perspective, and increase your productivity. Our program is flexible to meet your unique needs and the needs of our students. Whether you are looking to start a program or to recruit for one that is well-established, we look forward to working with you!

Attend the Career Connection Career Fair

The Career Connection Career Fair, held in the fall, is a prime opportunity to meet with a qualified, talented, and diverse set of candidates face-to-face in order to discuss current or anticipated opportunities within your organization.

Hold an Information Session

Market your organization to potential candidates and develop your campus presence by holding an information session. These information sessions are a great way to connect with top talent and share your company culture. The most successful sessions are held mid-week either over the lunch hour or late afternoon.

Conduct On-Campus Interviews

If you are interested in interviewing students on campus, we will be happy to provide you with a conference room and assist in contacting students to arrange your interview schedule.

Be a Volunteer

Volunteers are always needed to assist E&T's Office of Career Services with resume reviews, mock interviews and speaking engagements. These sessions help prepare students to succeed in the job and internship search process while developing your campus presence.

Host an Extern for a Day

Each semester, IUPUI coordinates a one-day externship program which enables students to see first-hand what a job in their field entails. By hosting externs, you not only build awareness of your organization, but also observe the abilities and qualifications of IUPUI's students for potential future opportunities.

Sponsor Programs

Sponsoring programs and events on campus is a great way to increase your company visibility and connect with our talented students! Whether you are sponsoring a career development event or participating in the Career Services Partner Program, you are sure to expand your campus presence.
