EXPERT ADVICE FROM SCHILLER'S LIQUOR BAR

Rick Bubbico, the general manager at Schiller's, recommends cocktails that can be made in bulk when entertaining. "Making a large batch is great, because you don't have to tend bar while everyone else enjoys the party. Punches that have seasonal flavors are good – use allspice and cloves for those cold winter nights and cinnamon sticks for great garnishes. The aromas of warm cocktails add to the holiday vibe; try mulled wine, hot buttered rum and toddies."
