

logo elements

The Senators new primary logo was designed by blending together many different elements into a dynamic, solid peice. The wind billowing against the fabric of the centurions cape is represented by repeating common angles and strokes coming from a single direction.

The Centurion's battle helmet is composed of downward and aggresive angles with sharp corners to represent the teams sharpness on the ice

