

the alternate logo

The Ottawa Senators new secondary logo is a representation of the teams past and present.

The roundel, complete with team name in french and english around the border, and the half red/half black circle in the middle, is a clear nod to the past and present.