

past fellows: where are they now?

| year | organization | participant | original concept | progress to date |
|------|--|--|---|---|
| 2011 | micro Home Solutions  | Rakhi Mehra MBA 2009 | micro Home Solutions (mHS) is a social venture with the goal to develop a portfolio of housing solutions to address diverse shelter needs of urban poor. We conceptualize and facilitate design of innovative projects; and offer consulting services to agencies that can help drive impact at larger scale. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conceptualized and designed modular homeless shelters accommodating 150-200 migrant men in Delhi. • Advising multi-lateral agencies/India's Apex Housing Bank on incremental housing/self construction at national level. |
| 2010 | AbilityTrip  | Darren Brehm MBA 2007 | AbilityTrip is a centralized resource for accessible travel information for disabled travelers, individuals with mobility impairments, and their companions. The site and mobile app provide information on destination logistics, accommodations, activities, restaurants, and emergency services. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Launching AbilityTrip mobile application for the iPhone featuring Chicago, Boston, Washington, DC, and London. AbilityTrip mobile is the first application of its type. • The website content continues to expand, receiving over 3,000 unique visits monthly. |
| 2010 | Friendfactor  | Brian Elliot MBA 2009 | Friendfactor is a gay rights organization for straight supporters that accelerates equality for all. Using social media and innovative online campaigns, Friendfactor creates opportunities for people with gay friends to learn more and take action to support their LGBT friends' rights. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Developed a groundbreaking online advocacy tool used in the campaign for marriage equality in New York. • Launched interactive awareness campaigns, including one that shared shocking facts about legal inequities to over 14 million followers. |

past fellows: where are they now?

| year | organization | participant | original concept | progress to date |
|------|---|--------------------------------------|---|--|
| 2009 | Global Citizen Year  | Abigail Falik MBA 2008 | Global Citizen Year is a premier global bridge-year program designed to unleash the potential of the next generation of young Americans as authentic leaders and effective agents of change. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Raised $3.5M from leading venture investors including Nike Foundation, Hewlett Foundation, Draper Richards Foundation, Mind Trust.• Trained 100 Fellows in our first 3 years with programming and local teams in Brazil, Ecuador, and Senegal. |
| 2009 | Sustainable Health Enterprises (SHE)  | Elizabeth Scharpf MBA 2007 | Sustainable Health Enterprises (SHE) brings business approaches to development. SHE's first initiative, SHE28, addresses lack of access to affordable menstrual pads causing women and girls to miss school and/or work—up to 50 days per year—with a holistic franchise model. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Operating in East Africa and assessing markets in India and the Caribbean.• Provided 5,000 with hygiene education and affordable menstrual pads in East Africa. By working at the policy level, will increase scope 1,000 fold in the upcoming two years. |