

'Sorry I didn't' See You'

Unit allows for user to continue usage of their current rucksack whilst using their bicycle without fear of their bag being damaged and keeping confidence knowing that they are being seen by other road users.

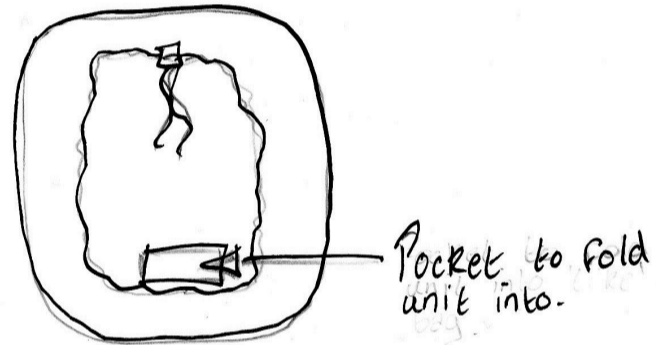

drawstring and reversing the process once finished with the journey.

Drawstring to fix cover onto bag ensuring quick and easy usage and low cost. Unit folds into itself creating its own storage reducing time wasted by user.

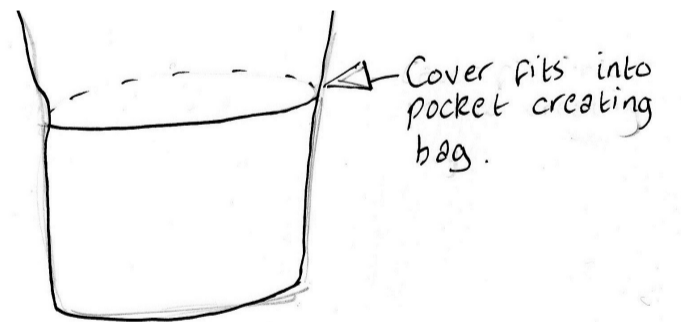

Combination of the bright, vivid logo and reflective straps ensures optimum visibility.

Unit allows the user to travel wherever they want safely without worrying about turning up to their destination 'out of style'. Unit combines style and safety in the industry of road safety.

Storage

Nylon material ensuring unit is : waterproof, lightweight, elastic fit, difficult to tear or damage, lasts a long time, and can be machine washed and dried.

This cover provides protection from rain, dust or snow whilst also acting as a safety precautions due to bright vivid logo and reflective material.

Simple instructions for use involving fastening the unit to your rucksack, tightening it using the

