The Legacy Golf Club at Lakewood Ranch offers a level of service and condition found at world-class private facilities. This championship 18-hole golf course, designed by

Arnold Palmer, is comprised of towering pines, majestic native oaks and wetlands, all preserved as a stunning backdrop where Florida's coastal wildlife abounds. Legacy was voted Best Places to Play by readers of Golf Digest and given 4 1/2 stars. One of America's Top Golf Courses by ZAGAT Survey 2006-2007, and #1 Public Golf Course in Southwest Florida voted by the readers of Florida Golf News 2004.

This Donald Ross championship design is both a great value and a unique golfing experience. This northern-style course features tree-lined fairways and well-bunkered, elevated greens. It is a supreme test for golfers of any caliber. The course opened in 1927 and was the original national headquarters course of the PGA of America from 1945 to 1962.

When you tee off at the Dunedin Country Club, you follow in the footsteps of some of the greatest athletes: Bobby Jones, Babe Zaharias, Babe Ruth, Ben Hogan, Sam Snead and a host of others. Dunedin Country Club is located in one of the oldest towns on the west coast of Florida, minutes from the beach.
