

WORLD FOOTBALLS at Appalachian

“ I learned that no matter where a person is, no matter their culture or their wealth, all humans are made of the same stuff.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE WORLD, ONE STUDENT AT A TIME.

I am so thankful for all of the opportunities I was provided as a student at ASU, and the connections I was able to make that have followed me into my career. I can't imagine having studied at any other school during my undergraduate years ”
