

Amelia.
*Where elegance comes to life...
in the style you deserve.*

At Amelia Island Plantation, elegance doesn't boast. Instead, it blends easily into life in fine homes, cozy villas and luxury town homes.

You hear it in the quiet chat of friends at the Ocean Clubhouse, and the click of a ball sent rolling toward the flag.

Here one hardly speaks of elegance, yet every day in a hundred ways, elegance comes to life. It speaks volumes about the style of living savored by Amelia Islanders... a style both deserved and appreciated.

Yes, every day in a hundred ways, elegance comes to life and is naturally defined, when you live at Amelia Island Plantation.
