Community theater provides a forum for people from all over our region, of all ages, to share their talents on stage and off. It provides access to the arts, tells stories that encourage us to think beyond ourselves, and shows us what was and what could be. Be a part of this historic organization by donating, becoming a member, being a sponsor, or volunteering.

DONATE

It is incredibly simple to become a donor with a direct donation. To make your tax-deductible gift, include it with your subscription order or visit sloctheater.org/donate to make a one time or recurring donation at any time. Your generous contribution enables SLOC to grow and continue being a vital part of our community. If your employer has a matching gift program, your donation can make a deeper impact, ensuring the health of our theater. Ask your Human Resources department if that is an option. For more information and other ways to donate, contact our Fundraising & Development Director at fundraising@sloctheater.org.

MEMBERSHIP

As a member, you have a direct say in how we function as an organization. Members are able to vote in board elections and participate in our semi-annual and annual membership meetings. These meetings are designed to share important issues and information involving our company, such as our annual season announcement. For an annual membership fee, you can shape our future for many years to come! For more information, visit sloctheater.org/membership.

SPONSORSHIP

Support SLOC by becoming a sponsor for our 98th Season! As a valued sponsor, your business can directly help our theater provide a safe and inclusive space for local performing arts, further enriching our community. SLOC offers enticing sponsorship benefits including naming rights, playbill advertisement, social media promotion, show tickets, and more! To learn more, visit sloctheater.org/sponsorship.

VOLUNTEERING

Whether on stage, behind the scenes, or in the lobby, it takes many people months of work to prepare a finished product worthy of our audience. Whether you are interested in sharing your skills, giving back to the community or enlarging your circle of friends, volunteering to work on any of our productions could be just what you are looking for! For more information, visit sloctheater.org/volunteer.

Based on the Paramount movie by Mike White

Book by JULIAN FELLOWES Lyrics by GLENN SLATER
New Music by ANDREW LLOYD WEBBER

Director: KAYLA TONEY

Wannabe rock star, Dewey Finn, finds himself down on his luck and struggling to make ends meet. Desperate for cash, he poses as a substitute teacher at a prestigious prep school. When he learns that his class of straight-A students know nothing about rock and roll, Dewey makes it his mission to educate them and uncover their true musical potential.

SCHOOL OF ROCK is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of The Really Useful Group. www.concordtheatricals.com

SEPTEMBER 13-15 & 19-22, 2024

Book by TINA FEY Music by JEFF RICHMOND Lyrics by NELL BENJAMIN

Based on the Paramount Pictures film Mean Girls

Director: ELIZABETH SHERWOOD-MACK

Despite growing up on an African savanna, nothing can prepare teenager Cady Heron for the ferocious nature of high school. Desperate to fit in, she falls prey to a trio of popular girls led by Queen Bee, Regina George. When Cady teams up with a couple of misfits to end Regina's reign, she learns just how ruthless high school can be.

MEAN GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL VERSION is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are also supplied by MTI. www.MTIShows.com

NOVEMBER 8-10 & 14-17, 2024

Music & Lyrics by WILLIAM FINN Book by WILLIAM FINN & JAMES LAPINE

Director: MELISSA MASON LACIJAN

Falsettos tells the tale of a dysfunctional, yet loving family in New York City at the dawn of the AIDS crisis. When Marvin leaves his wife and young son to be with his male lover, life gets a bit complicated to say the least. After Marvin's wife becomes romantically involved with his therapist, the problems escalate. With help from their neighbors, the family learns to face their future with love and dignity.

SLOC'S PRODUCTION OF

A Play by RICK ELICE Music by WAYNE BARKER

Based on the Novel by Dave Barry and Ridley Pearson

Director: MOLLY WATERS

Discover the imaginative story of how a miserable young orphan, known as "Boy," came to be Peter Pan. Sad and lonely, Boy's world is turned upside down when he meets the daughter of a famous Starcatcher and joins her mission to protect a treasure trunk filled with magical star stuff from the hands of an evil pirate. Peter and the Starcatcher explores the unbreakable bonds of friendship, love, and duty.

PETER AND THE STARCHATCHER is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are also supplied by MTI. www.MTIShows.com

MARCH 14-16 & 20-23, 2025

Book by ROGER O. HIRSON Music & Lyrics by STEPHEN SCHWARTZ

Originally produced on the Broadway stage by Stuart Ostrow Originally directed on the Broadway stage by Bob Fosse

Director: SAMMY WILSON

A young prince, longing to find passion and purpose in his life, embarks on an adventure filled with war games, romantic entanglements, and political intrigue. He soon finds that true happiness may be more complicated than he thought. Pippin is a humorous coming-of-age story about identity and the danger of false appearances.

PIPPIN is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are also supplied by MTI. www.MTIShows.com
